HUNS STRING PEACE OFFER

Hertling Likes America's Ideas, Says All Must Approve Tho.

RUSS ISSUE WARNING

Official Plea Made For Uprising Against German Horde.

New York, Feb. 26.—The German imperial chancellor again has told the Reichstag that a general peace is possible of discussion on the basis of four essential principles laid down some time ago by President Wilson in an address to Congress. Almost in the same breath, however, the imperial qualifications were entwined with his utterances, leaving the suspicion that the Central powers, if they are desirous of peace, still have their old ideas of a victorious peace to the fore.

Conditional upon the acceptance even of the principles of President Wilson was the declaration by Chancellor von Hertling that they must not only be proposed by the President, but actually be recognized by all States and peoples. In addition, there was no court of arbitration in which Germany could place her trust, he said. The old accusation that Great Britain's war aims are imperialistic was reiterated by the chancellor.

As if endeavoring to divide the sentiment of the people of Great Britain the spokesman for the German government declared that the world is longing for peace, but that the government of countries, enemy to Germany, were inflicting the passion for war. "There are," he added, dramatically, "other voices to be heard in England. It is hoped these voices will multiply."

Little Rancor in Address.

As a whole the chancellor's address was devoid of rancor, the speaker seemingly having as his purpose to paint to those at home, who are dissatisfied with the war in general and the resumption of hostilities against Russia, how generous Germany is inclined to be. To this end he went to the point of declaring that Germany had no desire to retain conquered territory in Finland, Esthonia, Lithuania and Livonia within her grasp. In fact, the broad assertion was made that Germany's present operations in Russia were being carried out solely to secure the fruits of the peace she had signed with the Ukraine.

Meanwhile, altho the Russians have accepted Germany's proposals for peace, the Germans are continuing their inroads both in Great and Little Russia. In the north some opposition is being placed in the path of the invaders, but evidently the pressure has not yet been sufficient to stay the progress of the enemy. Considerable fighting has taken place around the town of Pskov, which, according to latest advices, has changed hands several times. In Volhynia the town of Kolenkowitz has been captured after some fighting, and according to the Berlin official communication bands of the Bolsheviks in Ukraine have been put to flight by the Germans.

Save Capital Is Plea.

An official proclamation issued in Petrograd calls upon the people to rally to the cause of Russia if the Bolshevik government is to be saved. A call also has been issued to the people of the capital to come out and aid in the digging of defensive trenches and the general arming of the capital.

Realizing the seriousness of the situation the American ambassador and his staff made preparations Monday to quit Petrograd with the Chinese and Japanese diplomats who were arranging to depart. The ambassador informed the State Department at Washington that the German army there was only eight hours march from Petrograd.

On the various battle fronts operations similar to those that have been in progress for several weeks continue. Daily the Americans on their sector northwest of Toul are under a heavy German artillery fire, but they are answering the enemy guns with spirit and effectively shelling the enemy's front line trenches, battery positions and wire entanglements.

OFF FOR BERLIN

Forty six drafted men and two volunteers left Hartford over the M. H. & E. via Owensboro, Tuesday morning for Camp Taylor. This is the last of Ohio county's quota for the first draft, and makes the full number called for from the county.

A large crowd of friends and well wishers gathered at the depot to see the boys off. The Hartford school, marching with a large American flag at the head came in a body to the depot, and the school children pageant was an imposing incident. The spectacle added impressiveness to the occasion. It was a solemn scene to see the boys bidding a final farewell to their relatives and friends. The boys were in the best of spirits, and indulged in many jests of the trip before them. This was the most cheerful bunch of soldiers that has gathered here for the trip to the camp.

Only four of the boys, whose names we published last week as called for service, failed to appear. Two of these, Leslie Shultz and John Waltrip had not had their physical examinations completed, and Bertie Ford and Arthur Ralph who were unable to appear on the account of sickness. Stillie Lee, Muson and Guy S. Hefflin, impatient because the draft had not caught them, volunteered and went along with the other boys to the camp. The boys were put in transportation charge of Prof. Claude Shultz, of Narrows.

THE LEGISLATURE.

A legislative and senatorial redistricting bill has passed both Houses, and will be signed by the governor. This will be the first redistricting of the State in thirty years, although the constitution provides it shall be done every ten years. The Republicans will get a larger representation in both Houses as a result of the legislation.

A bill has passed the Senate giving train conductors power to make arrests for misconduct committed on trains.

Senator Glenn has introduced a bill requiring horses and mules to work the roads, along with their owners.

A bill abolishing the office of county assessor, and creating a county tax commissioner, has passed both Houses. It will not be effective until the terms of the present assessors expire.

The Senate has passed a bill providing for increased pay for rural school teachers, making the minimum salary for first class teachers $50 a month and second class $45. The bill also provides that when money is not available with which to pay the teachers interest bearing warrants shall be issued to provide it.

On account of a general food shortage the Legislature will probably pass a bill authorizing the use of seines and nets in taking fish in the rivers and lakes of the State.

A HAND OF TOBACCO

How little drops of water and little grains of sand make up the mighty ocean and the continents of land is illustrated by the tiny little sum of money being raised for the Red Cross here by contribution by the farmers of one hand each of tobacco to the Red cross basket provided by the ladies at each of the warehouses. Many farmers in delivering their tobacco have contributed more than a hand to the Red cross basket, and the total will net the Chapter quite a little sum of money. Mrs. Tico Burns has charge of the basket at the Burns house, Miss Beatrice Haynes the one at the A. C. A. house, and Mrs. Henderson Murphree takes care of the one at the Westfield house. There is quite a little spirit of rivalry between these good ladies for securing the greatest amount of tobacco for the Red Cross, and we are not allowed to state the amount so far collected.

RECASTING THE MAP OF RUSSIAN EMPIRE

Huns Cut Slav Domain Into Four Kingdoms To Kill
Their Power.

In Russia German methods of partition and division of the once mighty empire into weak and petty states is following the old Roman tactics of two thousand years ago. It was the policy of the ancient conquerors, where they could not assimilate territory captured, to divide it into petty states in order to blunt its future power.

In redrawing the map of Russia Germany is establishing four separate states. The Ukraine country which recently taking advantage of general disunion set up a so-called republic, embraces the rich grain fields of southern Russia, and is populated with thirty million of people, will proceed to maintain a separate entity with Germany protection and approval. Russia Poland on the German border will be a state independent of and Lithuania, which embraces practically all the Russian Baltic sea coast with the great ports of Riga and Libau, will be the third chip hewed out of the Russian block. This trimming will leave Russia Siberia and the Bolsheviks, and the bleak mountains of the north. Four Russian states, with their petty quarrels and disputes, will be less dangerous to German ambitions than the ancient large if loosely hung together empire. This scheme is the most dazzling undertaking of modern times, and the world will watch with feverish interest the issue of the venture. If Germany masters the world she can by constantly fomenting quarrels among the new states keep the establishment intact, but the moment she becomes unable, by either force or intrigue, to give or influence the people of this territory a general breakup may any day again recast the map of Russia.

PATRIOTIC MEETING

Go to the Methodist church Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock and make yourself part of an occasion devoted to arousing the patriotic spirit of the people. We have just sent another bunch of our gallant boys on their way to a part in a defense of our country, and let us now arouse the spirit of our people to support them in their perilous task by every possible encouragement that can be given from the loved ones at home. Everybody out in the country who has a friend among the soldiers in the camp or at the front who is in reasonable reach of Hartford should attend this meeting.

The following program has been arranged for the meeting:

Music by Orchestra.
America—by congregation, orchestral accompaniment.

Scripture Reading and Prayer, by the pastor, Rev. A. D. Litchfield.

The Battle Hymn of the Republic—Lady Quakette.

Reading—"The Service Flag," Anella Pirtle.

Presentation of Service Flag—W. H. Barnes.

Calling of roll of all the boys in the service from Ohio county and answer by some one in the congregation, and placing of their name on flag—Mr. C. O. Hunter.

Solo—"The Star Spangled Banner," Miss Ruth Riley.

Address—Judge J. W. Henson, of Henderson.

Song—"All Hail," congregation.

Offertory—Benediction.

THE EXEMPTION BOARD.

After weeks of strenuous activity the local exemption board headquarters reminds the observer of Goldsmith's "deserted village." The board members, the examining physician and the assistant clerks have hied away to their accustomed pursuits, and only Clerk Coumbs, making some final tabulations, is on deck. For many weeks the board rooms were a busy hive where young men were coming in to be examined, or argue with the board about the matter of classification, and where parents and wives came in to plead for the son's or husband's exemption from military service. But now the die is cast, and the 157 boys have donned the khaki, and are at or on their way to the front.

PROFITS IN HOGS.

Mr. Roy Foreman, a farmer living in the Goshen neighborhood, has demonstrated that there is money in feeding hogs even during the coldest possible winter weather. Mr. Foreman has just sent to market twelve pigs which at live and six months old averaged about 200 pounds which brought him $258. Mr. Foreman had carefully kept a record of his feed, including table slop, and after deducting the market value of all feeds used, had left a profit of $145. The feed used was 80 per cent corn and 20 per cent middlings and other prater feeds.

BIG DEMAND FOR MULES.

Everywhere there is evidence of a scarcity of mules, and prices are being marked up by the military and southern demand. Mules were not numerous when the European war began and the stock has been materially reduced in the meanwhile. Dealers are scouring the country for stock to fill the urgent demand. Mare mules are wanted in the South and the South is willing to pay from $25 to $35 per head over what male mules are bringing. On the Chicago market fat mare mules weighing from 1,000 to 1,200 pounds are bringing $200 to $250, the gentleness of the mare mules being the reason for the preference.

Male mules are sometimes inclined to kill hogs and damage property generally. Both the United States and English Governments are in the market for large numbers of male mules and are taking the plain, aged mules at $180.

STORM MONDAY AFTERNOON

A right severe wind storm visited various sections of the county late Monday afternoon. The smoke stuck at the Electric Light plant here was blown down, and left the town in darkness for the night. Candles and coal oil lamps were brought out of the closets and attics but most of our citizens relieved the situation by going to bed earlier than usual. No serious damage was reported from out in the country other than trees blown down and fences wrecked.

A PATRIOTIC FAMILY.

Esquire Butler Rhoads, of Taffy, may justly claim the honor of making the greatest sacrifice of Ohio county fathers to the army of Uncle Sam. Three of Esquire Rhoads' sons were in the bunch of soldier boys sent to Camp Taylor from here Tuesday morning, and he had a son-in-law already in the army. He has another son in draft age who will probably be called in the next draft. Squire Rhoads' father had four sons and a son-in-law in the civil war.

NEGRO HOLDUP

Sunday night while returning from church here, Cecil Daniel and Everett Shaver, two young men living near Hemmets, east of town, were held up, so they alleged, and robbed by Aaron Mosley, a negro living in Hayti. According to the young men's story they were on the public highway near the cemetery gate when they were accosted by the negro who demanded two bits each from them. They claim to have told him they had no money, but upon the negro making some violent threats they gave him fifty cents, when they were allowed to proceed upon their way. The boys came to town Monday and swore out a warrant for the negro's arrest. The negro, Mosley, has heretofore been a good reputation. He has been for some time employed at the local garage, and Mr. Pate, the manager, says he had always found him reliable and trustworthy.

DROPPED DEAD.

Tom Henry, who had lived up to his life about Taffy, but who recently moved to Whitesville, dropped dead at his home in that town Sunday. Mr. Henry had been in bad health for several years, but his sudden death was wholly unexpected by his friends. He was about fifty years old and leaves a wife. His remains were buried Tuesday in Union Grove cemetery.

TWO MURDERERS GET SHORT TERMS

Men Who Killed Chief Of Police Keath Are Finally Convicted.

After being out five hours, the jury returned a verdict at 11 o'clock today of guilty of manslaughter against Mack Logan and Frank Tribble for the murder of K. H. Keath, chief of police at Dawson Spring, Ky., July 19, 1916, and fixed their punishment at two and one-half years in the penitentiary. At a former trial Logan was given 18 years, Tribble three and Constable Ferguson was acquitted.

At the time of the killing K. D. Rodgers, who had been arrested by Keath and served a jail sentence, had a warrant sworn out for Keath, charging assault and battery. The warrant was given to Constable Ferguson, who summoned Tribble, Logan and Rodgers to assist in making the arrest. Rodgers is alleged to have fired at Keath while the warrant was being read, and the officer drew his gun and killed Rodgers. Logan was alleged to have fired the shot that killed Keath, while Tribble and Ferguson had their arms around the officer, trying to take his gun from him. He was shot in the back of the head.

FROM BED AND BOARD

By an agreement made through their attorneys, Glenn and Kirk, John and Mary Coleman, of Deanfield have adjusted their divorce suit, out of court. It appears that Mr. Coleman had been confined in a Sanatorium for about ten years and that upon his return home recently, his wife had decided for some reason that a permanent separation was desirable, and filed suit for divorce. By the terms of the settlement, Mr. Coleman pays his wife the sum of $500, and they agree not to interfere with or molest each other.

A SERIOUS CHARGE

Annie Pittman, of Rosine, came before the county judge a few days ago and swore out a warrant for Steve Grigsby, charging him with seduction under a promise of marriage. Grigsby was at the time in Butler county and the warrant was sent to the sheriff of that county for execution. The Butler county sheriff found the man and put him under bond for his appearance for examining trial before Judge Cook, March 9.

GET VACCINATED NOW

With smallpox prevalent in various localities in the county it is the part of discretion for everybody who has not been recently vaccinated to have it done at once. It is the only security against the spread of this loathsome disease. County health physician, Pendleton, will vaccinate without charge all persons unable to pay for having it done. It is better to have a sore arm for a few days than to have to be quarantined for weeks.

REMOVED TO SANITARIUM

Mrs. E. H. Pendleton, in care of her husband, Dr. E. H. Pendleton and accompanied by Mr. H. P. Taylor, went to Lexington Tuesday, where she will take treatment in the Good Samaritan Hospital. Mrs. Pendleton has been in failing health for some time, and growing steadily worse the hospital treatment was decided upon. Mrs. Pendleton's friends are apprehensive that her malady may be incurable.

VIOLENTLY INSANE.

George C. Sewell, a laborer, living near Beaver Dam was adjudged a lunatic here Wednesday, and sent to the Asylum at Hopkinsville.

Sewell is a recent emigrant to Ohio county, coming from West Virginia about Christmas. His folks live at Bellvue, W. Va. His wife was a Peake, who is a native of the county, but the couple were married in Illinois last September. He is thirty six years old and has no property. Sewell's mind has been unbalanced for sometime. He had an hallucination that somebody was trying to steal his wife, and arming himself with a shot gun and a pistol, he had scarcely left the house in the last three weeks. His wife becoming alarmed at his threatening condition had him arrested and brought here for lunacy inquiry. Upon arriving at the court house he struggled violently to get released, and it required the effort of several men to force him into the judge's office.

CAUGHT AGAIN

Ellis Bush, colored, (Drusilla's man) who was arrested last week on a charge of assaulting his wife, was brought out before Judge Cook and was about to be released from custody on his own bond, when the sheriff arrested him on a bench warrant charging him with failing to support an infant child, and locked him up again. He was later released on bond.

BOILED DOWN.

Nearly 500,000 soldiers are now in France.

During the year of unrestricted U-boat warfare exports of the United States to Europe increased from $5,300,000,000 to over $6,000,000,000.

The next draft for a half million men will probably come the last of April or the first of May.

Gov. Brough, of Arkansas, who has just returned from a visit to Washington, says the opinion in Washington circles is that the war will last three years yet.

A Chicago trade journal says it cost the business interests of the country $285.00 a ton to coal the four hundred supply ships recently sent to Europe.

The President has fixed the price of the 1918 wheat crop at $2.20 per bushel.

The United States is the only nation in the war that has increased its postal rate.

Ten thousand people were killed in an earthquake in China, Sunday.

Japan is reported to be planning to take over a large part of Russian Siberia.

Three American soldiers were killed in a German gas attack Tuesday.

The Postmaster General has issued an order raising the weight limit for parcel post packages, when delivered in the first, second or third zones, from fifty to seventy pounds.

Food Boss Hoover has issued an urgent call to the people to raise the highest gardens ever this season.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, in a speech in New York, strongly opposed the ratification of the national prohibition amendment, arguing that it would throw a large body of laborers out of employment.

The government has notified all canners to hold their entire stocks of canned goods subject to government requisition. The canned goods of private families will not be called for.

REVIVAL CONTINUES

The revival being conducted by Rev. Cannon at the Baptist church is being continued into the second week. Much interest is being manifested and a great deal of good is being accomplished. Rev. Cannon is preaching some strong and forcible sermons outlining the tenets of Baptist faith. The meeting will close tonight.

FRIDAY, MARCH 1

If not Judge Slack then why not Judge John H. Giffin, of Scottsville for Judge of the Court of Appeals?

General Pershing is calling for five pairs of shoes for each soldier. We hope he is not preparing the boys for running.

The girls, God bless 'em, in this time of scarcity of cloth are doing their very best to make both ends
—of their dresses—meet.

The traveling men say that the hotel keepers are a little too darned patriotic in carrying out Hoover's orders to economize in foodstuffs.

The Owensboro Messenger is wholly unable to understand why a Democratic State Senate would let a little matter like the law stand in its way of seating as good a Democrat as Mr. McFarland.

The government should issue a mandatory order to the public to observe meatless and wheatless day or lift the mock order that punishes
we poor devils who live in hotels with corn bread for breakfast while the people in their homes are eating light fluffy biscuits.

The best evidence that a Democratic Legislature expects the next State administration to be Republican is seen in its strenuous efforts to abolish a large number of useless offices.
It will take care, however, that the present incumbents of these useless offices hold on till their present term expires.

That was a fine bunch of boys that left the M. H. & E. depot Tuesday morning for a final destination of "somewhere" in France. Let us hope they all return for a happy reunion with the loved ones at home after they have played a patriotic part in restoring the freedom of democracy to the nations of the earth.

We have ordered McFluke under pain of a two per cent cut in salary to prepare a half column weekly of that abominable "Stray Scream" stuff, and it will appear regularly hereafter. The stuff is so rotten that we sprinkle carbolic acid about our desk while we proof read it, but some people like it. There is no accounting for taste as the old woman said
when she kissed her cow.

Will Kaltenbacher, the political dooper for the Louisville Times and the shrewdest political guesser
among Kentucky newspaper writers, says Hon. M. L. Heavrin, of Hartford, is being boomed for the Republican nomination for Attorney General next year. Mr. Heavrin ranks with the very ablest lawyers in Kentucky, and would make a capable and efficient state official.

The sudden blushing into the blue-light, at Washington of Ollie James reminds us that a Senatorial election will soon be at hand. Since the Presidential election when Ollie went up and down the land solemnly assuring the mothers of the country that if Woodrow Wilson was elected President the bones of their sons would not bleach on a foreign battle field, Washington has kept Ollie in the background, and the public has heard little of the Roaring Lion of the Penyrille, but with the approach of the election something must be done. So Ollie makes a speech in the Senate defending the President, whatever that may mean, and the President writes Ollie a letter of congratulation, and of course
all the Kentucky papers will print the President's letter. And then to make assurance doubly sure Ollie's name gets due prominence before his constituents. A New York newspaper correspondent hitches a presidential boom for the big Senator.

But the New York correspondent may have protested too much. It will be something of a joke to Kentuckians to have Ollie's name associated with the presidency.

THE SCHOOL AUXILIARY.

We made a brief visit to the High School auxiliary to the local Red Cross yesterday and found a busy bunch of young ladies, under the direction of Mrs. John Wilson and Mrs. Owen Hunter, working like a beehive, making clothes for the destitute little children of France and Belgium.

The school children are making booties, caps, capes, socks and blankets, or a general fitting of clothing for the little orphans and the work is being splendidly executed. The patterns are furnished direct from the countries to which the clothing will be sent, and although made by the loving hands of American school children, the styles do not differ with those to which the children are accustomed.

In addition to training the school girls in needle and machine work, it is instilling in them with a spirit of usefulness and national appreciation that will last as lessons for a lifetime.
Mrs. R. E. L. Zimmerman has generously donated a number of blankets from which the small blanket-are made, and the ladies in charge, aside a contribution of any useful material people interested may be called upon to give. Call in and see these little patriots at work and we are sure you will feel an impulse
to help.

THE RED CROSS.

Mrs. C. E. Smith made a nice large Red Cross service flag and presented it to the local headquarters.

Nineteen sweaters, twenty-three pairs of socks and twenty-eight hospital shirts, the work of the local Red Cross ladies, has been shipped to national headquarters at Cleveland.

Beaver Dam has been granted permission to organize a local auxiliary
chapter of the Red Cross.
McHenry has applied for permission to open an auxiliary chapter.

Mr. J. L. Hsie gave a benefit exhibition of his picture show at Rockport that netted the Red Cross treasury $25.

You Ride the Tool —Not the Tractor

See how the operator of a Moline Universal Two-Wheel Tractor sits on the seat of the implement just as he would if he were driving a team. You know you couldn't ride your horses and do a good job of cultivating, plowing, drilling, mowing or any other kind of farm work. Neither can you do it with a tractor. With the Moline-Universal Tractor you sit where you can watch the work the implement is doing. You simply guide it with the steering wheel—easier than you can guide a team—everything is right at your finger tips with plenty of power. You can work as many hours as you wish in all kinds of weather—on all kinds of jobs.

Does All Farm Work Without Horses

- It is heavy enough to do all farm work, yet light enough to work on soft plowed ground without packing the soil.
- It will cultivate as well as plow.
- It will do your discing, harrowing, planting, mowing, haying, harvesting—in short, anything you can do with horses and all belt work on the average farm.
- It will do all this easier, quicker, cheaper than with horses.
- It pulls the load of 5 horses and furnishes 10 to 12 horse power on the belt.
- It is made and backed by one of the oldest, strongest, most dependable farm implement companies in the world, and built in the largest tractor factory in the world.
- It is the only tractor which will do all farm work without horses.
- It is low in first cost and inexpensive to operate.

The Automobile

Has proven beyond a doubt its economy and efficiency, and as a means of transportation is one of the prime factors in the successful prosecution of our everyday business.

The Farm Tractor

Now looms up as an unmistakable evidence of progressive farming, and bids fair to excell anything that has ever been introduced to increase production at a minimum cost.

With This Idea

In mind we have to offer our customers the MOLINE UNIVERSAL TRACTOR. In stock right now. We have considered the tractor proposition from every standpoint of which we are capable, and firmly believe that we have the tractor best adapted to the needs of this section. Tractor may be seen now at our warehouse, and public demonstrations will be later.
